

ABOUT US

The SPHS Family

The foundation stone of Sunny Prep & High school was laid down by none other than Mrs. Soudamini Phadkar wife of Dattaraya Gajanan Phadkar popularly known as “Dattu Phadkar” the great all-rounder of the Indian Cricket team during the mid 90’s (1947).

Mrs. Phadkar started her journey with only five students. She acquired her training in teaching from England and tried to impart all that she knew. SPHS is the first school in Behala to adopt the method of Phonetic Learning under the guidance of Mrs. Phadkar. The institution still focusses on Nature and environment ,based on practical applications and the phonetic method of teaching. Though started off as a preparatory school, Sunny Prep School has grown into a high school with all modern teaching techniques and amenities. The school is being run under the management of Khaitan Public School, Ghaziabad and is a unit of the Bengal Education Society. SPHS values the importance of education and wished to provide skill acquisition and enhancement opportunities to the young generation of the society.
